Location: Mijas Costa

Description: A stunning villa in a great front line golf location. This property should not be confused with villas that are built to sell on. This villa has features, extras and qualities not found in other modern villas. The difference in quality and features can be felt upon entering the house. The property is very bright with and internal court yard changing the traditional layout by providing separated and yet connected areas allowing to one to relax. There are many different terraces with different views. The property has a large garage capable of holding around three cars quite easily. The property has a very tastefull pool area with a background of tropical plants. Contact us for more photos and information..this is a must see property.
